Good Feeling Prevails.

The meeting of the committee yesteray was marked by the utmost harmony and good feeling. Milton E. Ailes, chairman of the finance committee, presented his full report showing that when outstanding bills have been paid, when the guarantee fund has been paid back to the subscribers, and when the sum of $500 shall be paid to the widow of E. M. Swann, who fell and was killed while at work upon the President's box in the inaugural ball room, there would remain approximately $6,000. The report of Mr. Alles was received with great satisfaction and relief by the members of the committee, and he was made the recipient of many pleasant remarks at the conclusion of the report.

Falicitations were also extended to the committee of the properties of the conclusion of the report.

NEW TRIAL IS ASKED

Arrest of Judgment Wanted in Baker-Warner Suit.

DEFENDANT FILES MOTIONS

Brainard H. Warner Declares that Verdict Awarding $10,000 to the Plaintiff Is Contrary to the Evidence and to the Law, and that Brainard H. Warner, defendant in the ibel suit instituted by United States Attorney Daniel W. Baker, which resulted in a verdict of $10,000 damages for the plaintiff, has filed motions in the District Supreme Court for a new trial and for arrest of judgment, through his attorney, J. J. Darlington.

The motion for a new trial is made on the ground that the verdict is contrary to the evidence; that it is contrary to law; that it is contrary to the instructions of the court; that the damages awarded are excessive, and that it was based on errors of law in admitting and excluding testimony, in granting, modifying, and rejecting proffered instructions, and in overruling objections to comments made in argument to the jury.

Arrest of judgment is asked, the papers declare, because of the fatal defects ap parent on the face of the declaration stated to the court; because no basis is laid in either the inducement or the collogulm of the declaration to admit of the construction of the article in suit by the court, or any construction of a libelous or actionable character; because the from the greater number of the members commissioner West Approves Dr. declaration does not allege that the Washof both Houses of Congress that they ington Jockey Club, or bookmakers, or any one interested in gambling at the race track were sources from which the plaintiff, by reason of his official position, Recommends that Similar Work Be or otherwise, might unlawfully or improperly obtain money; because the de tion does not allege that the words complained of in the article were written or r improper obtaining of money by the Arrest of judgment is asked further, the papers declare, because the declaration does not allege that the words complaine of were written or published with refer track gamblers or with reference to the nance or nonperformance of any official duty owing by the plaintiff; ause the declaration does not allege that the words complained of were written or rack, or to gamblers, or to gambling at the race track, and because of other defects on the face of the declaration. The motions will be heard next Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

STEWART MUST PAY ALIMONY.

Defendant in Divorce Suit Ordered to Help Wife During Trial. Eugene K. Stewart, a special draftsnan, in the employ of C. A. Snow & Co., who was made defendant in a suit for limited divorce, filed a few days ago by Virginia Stewart, filed his answer yesterday to the rule to show cause why he should not pay alimony during the pendency of the suit.

Through his attorneys, Millan & Smith, le enters a general denial of his wife's charges of cruelty, nonsupport, and an evident desire to get rid of her and the is actually earning only $32 a week, and

Mrs. Stewart filed a supplemental peition yesterday, asking for alimony on the ground that she is now dependent on her friends and relatives, and has her ree children to care for. On the presentation of the two docu-ments, Justice Wright ordered Stewart to pay $15 a week alimony to his wife for the support of her and the children, until the further order of the court. Watch for a city-Randle Highlands.

Buster Brown Shoes

are best for

Boys and Girls.

When we say "Buster Brown" shoes represent a better value than you have heretofore been getting, and can prove this statement, don't you think it worth your while to try a pair? Anyway, you ought to see them.

These shoes are made from the best tannages of good leathers, by the most expert workmen money can secure. They are made to fit the foot snugly without cramping, and you will find a style to suit the most critical taste.

There is more actual comfort in a pair of Buster Brown Blue Ribbon Shoes than in any other shoe you could buy for your boy or girl-because they are built on scientific lines of correct foot form, which means foot comfort.
